

Branden S. Stein

Principal

St. Louis, MO

314-854-8789 | bss@carmodymacdonald.com

Education

Northwestern University,
J.D., 2014

The Ohio State University,
B.A. in Philosophy and
German, 2008

Branden S. Stein is an attorney in the firm's litigation group. He focuses his practice in the areas of commercial litigation and complex civil litigation. Since joining the firm, Branden has been assisting clients with commercial and contract disputes as well as cases involving allegations of medical malpractice. He is also working to expand his practice into bankruptcy and receivership matters. Prior to joining the firm he clerked for a judge in the United States District Court in the Eastern District of Michigan and externed for a judge in the Cook County Law Division in Illinois. Most recently, he worked for a private law firm in San Francisco, California doing complex civil litigation and criminal defense.

Practice Areas

- Business Law
- Financial Restructuring & Bankruptcy
- Litigation
- Real Estate

Awards & Recognition

- Best Lawyers - "The Best Lawyers in America" - Commercial Litigation (2026)

Publications

- "Arriving at the Right Answer: How The City Of Brentwood Fought A Legal Battle To Save Its Residents From Dangerous Flooding And Blight," The Review, published by the Missouri Municipal League, March/April 2026
- "Artificial Intelligence will not replace attorneys anytime soon." St. Louis Post-Dispatch, November 27, 2023
- "Artificial Intelligence won't replace attorneys," St. Louis Business Journal (print issue), November 14, 2023
- "Artificial intelligence won't replace attorneys anytime soon." St. Louis Business Journal, November 7, 2023