

Marina A. Tallman

Associate

St. Louis, MO

314-854-8719 | mat@carmodymacdonald.com

Marina Tallman is an attorney in the firm's family law group. She focuses her practice on complex domestic cases, including divorce/dissolution of marriage, child custody and support, and modification of judgments.

Marina worked as a law clerk at Carmody MacDonald during her third year of law school before joining the firm as an associate in 2023. During law school, she also worked at the St. Louis City Circuit Attorney's Office and clerked at a Chicago law firm. Marina earned her bachelor's degree in political science from The University of Alabama and her law degree from Washington University in St. Louis where she was on the Dean's List and served as Associate Managing Editor of the Washington University Journal of Law and Policy.

Education

Washington University in
St. Louis, J.D. (2023)

- Dean's List
- Student Bar Association
- Washington University Journal of Law and Policy - Staff Editor; Associate Managing Editor
- Family Law Society - Executive Council
- Admissions Ambassador
- Women's Law Caucus

The University of Alabama,
B.A. (2020)

- President's List
- Buford Boon Memorial Scholarship
- Kick Start College; Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women; Student Government Association
- Pi Sigma Alpha; Phi Sigma Tau; Order of Omega; The Elliott Society

Practice Areas

- Family Law

Publications

- "Recognizing Coercive Control: A Legislative Model for Overcoming the Challenges of Fighting Invisible Domestic Abuse," Washington University School of Law's Journal of Law & Policy, Volume 73, Issue 1 (2024)
- "Valentine's Day May Increase Divorce Inquiries," Missouri Lawyers Media, February 14, 2024